

Part Time Perfect is a state of mind, an understanding that the pursuit of musical greatness is an ongoing and continuous pursuit of a perfect moment. Perfection is attainable, not sustainable. Whether playing for 10 people or 100, on stage or in the garage, our passion is rooted in the love of making music and chasing those elusive moments. Based out of Vancouver WA, Part Time Perfect is available for booking in and around the Pacific Northwest.

Starting out as a weekly Monday night jam session, Part Time Perfect quickly evolved into a powerful new musical trio, mixing collective years of writing, performing and recording into a synergistic sound that is truly one to be heard. With essences of americana, a dash of funk and a rock'n'roll soul, Part Time Perfect pulls from past and present projects and a wide swath of classic and contemporary influences, engaging the listener with a dynamic power trio sound and folk drawn storytelling.
